Great for individuals

Beauty Spa

(Thursday mornings)

Whether you're 20, 50 or 90, you deserve to look and feel beautiful. Beauty spa pampers residents with haircuts, chocolate facial and nail polish. More volunteers are needed to provide this service to bedbound residents.

Get IT Savvy

(Tuesday afternoons)

Do you spend long afternoons watching funny videos on YouTube or getting updates on your friends' lives over Facebook? Computers are available for residents to learn, be entertained and connect with loved ones. More volunteers are needed to guide residents one-on-one in mastering the computer.

Suitable for groups

Eat a Pot of Love

(Open to suggestions on timing)

Mealtimes are more than a means of filling one's stomach. It's also a time for loved ones to gather and a time to rest after a long day of work. They hold special memories. Eat a Pot of Love is a time for residents to cook their good ol' recipes and recreate new memories with volunteers and fellow residents. More volunteers are needed to host cooking sessions.

PushCARNIVAL

(Open to suggestions on timing)

Flea markets are exciting places for checking out bargain sales and knick-knacks. Roving pushcarts bring the same excitement and life to our residents. More volunteers are needed to run sales and games on our pushcarts.

Suitable for either groups or individuals

Drum Circle

(Open to suggestions on timings)

Boom da boom boom da... Music has a way of unifying people. It also offers an outlet to relax and release creative juices. What's special about drum circle is that the experience in the circle is the end in itself. Music not bounded by a genre, but co-created by participants. The instrument itself is also easy to pick up!

Volunteers needed to facilitate and be part of this drum circle.

Night Café

(Friday nights)

Imagine barista coffee, live band and alfresco dining... residents get to bask in these vibes at our Night Café. Open after the sun goes down, it offers residents a space to chill and hang out with friends. More volunteers are needed to plan and execute themed projects.
